JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The appellant herein is the writ petitioner who seeks to assail the order disposing of the writ petition filed by him, wherein he sought to challenge the orders of removal from service.

Though several contentions have been urged by either side, however, the learned Single Judge, having regard to the fact that the writ petitioner has got an alternative remedy of appeal, disposed of the writ petition, permitting the appellant herein to file an appeal within a period of one month from that day and on such appeal, the respondents shall consider the same and dispose of it within a period of three months thereafter.

Having heard the learned counsel on either side and on perusal of material on record, we do not find any error to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. However, the appellant shall file an appeal within a period of fifteen days from today. No costs.
